Craig has created the Message Dispatcher (MD), a flexible and extensible system architecture to be used on wireless-inter-vehicular communication for safety application. MD defines how a message is created and interpreted by any vehicle and would be used to have vehicles communicate in order to avoid collisions, warn of hazards, prepare for a collision, and in general enhance road safety.